ahu - A ahu is a stone platform on which moai were placed. Ahu marked burial sites or were used for ceremonial purposes.

‘ahu ‘ula - A ‘ahu ‘ula is a Hawaiian feather cloak.

moai - A moai is a large, blocky figural stone sculpture found on Rapa Nui (Easter Island).

pou tokomanawa - A pou tokomanawa is a sculpture of an ancestor that supports a ridge pole of a Maori meetinghouse.

pukao - A pukao is a small red scoria cylinder that appears as a hat on moai.

tapa - A tapa is barkcloth made particularly in Polynesia. Tapa is often dyed, painted, stenciled, and sometimes perfumed.