Key Terms

- Nobel Peace Prize - An award given since 1901 to an individual who has made a difference
- Online Databases - collections of journals, magazines, newspapers, ebooks, podcasts, videos, and other materials that are republished in digital format.
- Annotated Bibliography - a reference that includes the publication information along with the commentary on the material reviewed
- Plagiarism - the act of taking credit for something that you did not write or produce; not properly giving credit to the author of the material (quotes, summary, idea, photograph, etc).