Course: AP Literature and Composition

Module: Alienation, Disaffection, and Estrangement

Key Terms

• Connective - a word that is used to join or connect words, phrases, clauses, and sentences

• Feminist criticism - the way in which literature and other texts approach issues of femininity, women's rights, gender roles and other aspects of economic, political and social oppression of women.

• Estrangement - to make hostile; to alienate; to remove from an accustomed place or situation

• Alienation - the state of being withdrawn or isolated from the world either by choice or by society

• Tone - attitude toward the subject the author takes; attitude toward the reader/audience the author takes