Course: AP Literature and Composition
Module: Willa Cather

Key Terms

- Character - the combination of qualities or features that distinguishes one person, a group, or a thing
- Imagery - set of mental images; using the mind’s eye to see the text
- Imperialism - the advancement of a specific nation by taking control of another country through obtaining land or large territories (or through gaining indirect economic or political power)
- Identity - the collective aspect of the set of characteristics by which a thing is definitively recognizable or known